Dear Don:

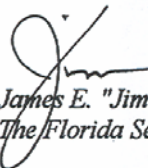

As the term of my Senate Presidency comes to a close, I would be remiss if I didn't take time to thank you for not only your original support in my quest for the post but also for your tireless efforts, at my request, for advice and input. I recognize that the time you gave me was valuable; especially the times I sought your counsel during the session.

I truly believe that the history books will show that the past two years were, despite so much of the negativism regarding some issues, some of our state's most productive. When you look at what we set out to do and what we actually accomplished, I think anyone will see that we compiled a very enviable record.

I had a cadre of intelligent and informed folks that I turned to from time to time to bounce off ideas or to seek advice. You were one of those people - and I thank you for your effort, your candor and your objectivity.

I wish you well in the years to come and I look forward to seeing you soon.

Sincerely,

*James E. "Jim" King, Jr., President
The Florida Senate*
